

2018 Grants

DIRECT SERVICE

A Home Within

To expand a network of volunteer clinicians available to foster youth facing complex trauma.

$25,000 for one year.

American Friends Service Committee

For case management, counseling and client advocacy to address mental health crises amongst immigrants.

$180,000 over three years.

Baruch College Fund

To expand the Triage Care and Management System to include screenings for complex trauma and signs of more serious mental illness.

$150,000 over two years.

The Bridge

Renewed support for the Aging Services Program for older adults with complex physical and mental health conditions.

$225,000 over three years.

Bridging Access to Care

To increase access to mental health screening, counseling and treatment services at the Kingsboro Homeless Shelter and nearby supportive housing units.

$150,000 over three years.

Broad Street Ministry

Renewed support for the organization's Concierge Case Management Services, serving 4,500 homeless Philadelphians. $225,000 over three years.

Center for Alternative Sentencing and Employment Services (CASES)

For a new, mobile Intensive Outpatient Program that will connect those in acute crisis with mental health and substance abuse supports.

$150,000 over three years.

Covenant House Pennsylvania

To enhance patient-centered psychiatric care to help Philadelphia's homeless youth to stabilize, avoid hospitalization, and live independently.

$210,000 over three years.

Child Mind Institute

Support for highly trained mental health clinicians to provide customized mental health services at schools serving disadvantaged children.

$225,000 over three years.

Chinese-American Sunshine House

To continue an ongoing series of mental health workshops and trainings for New York City's low-income Chinese Immigrant community.

$30,000 over three years.

Depaul USA

To increase the number of transitional housing residents treated for mental and behavioral health disorders.

$50,000 over two years.

2018 Grants

Fountain House

For general support and the organization's Employment and Wellness programs.
$750,000 over three years.

Fresh Youth Initiatives

To support a bi-lingual social worker on a team of mental health professionals supporting immigrant students at Gregorio Luperon High School.
$225,000 over three years.

Friends of Island Academy

To support a Community Resilience Team that intervenes sooner for incarcerated adolescents showing signs of more significant mental illness.
$225,000 over three years.

Gesu School

To make a Lead Counselor position year-round, enhancing the mental health services provided to students.
$210,000 over three years.

Good Shepherd Services

To expand trauma informed, mental-health care at Brooklyn Frontiers HS and other schools serving under-credited high schoolers.
$225,000 over three years.

Graham Windham

To more effectively assess the mental health needs of foster youth and engage their parents where appropriate.
$225,000 over three years.

Intercommunity Action

To support full-time LCSWs in two North Philadelphia public schools that have limited or no access to mental health services.

$225,000 over three years.

Interim House

To support a Focalized Treatment Program for women with co-occurring disorders who need greater psychiatric care.

$225,000 over three years.

The Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services

Renewed support for Kaplan House, a 25-bed facility providing therapeutic vocational training for young men transitioning out of the child welfare system.

$225,000 over three years.

Lantern Community Services

To support Targeted Illness Management and Recovery (IMR) for supportive housing residents with the most significant mental health issues.

$225,000 over three years.

Maternity Care Coalition

To address the shortage of mental health counseling for 125 pregnant or newly parenting women at Philadelphia's Riverside Correctional Facility.

$90,000 over three years.

The Mayor's Fund to Advance New York City

Renewed participation in C2C Collaborative Fund, which provides community-based organizations (CBOs) training and coaching for their frontline staff in mental health practices.

$200,000 over two years.

2018 Grants

New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NYSPCC)

For a Trauma Recovery Team serving New York City's most traumatized children and families.

$150,000 over three years.

North Jersey Community Research Initiative (NJCRI)

Renewed support to increase on-site psychiatric services and therapy for at risk, HIV negative residents of Newark.

$225,000 over three years.

Northside Center

To support teacher training, parent education and the mental health care of at-risk children attending 15 Early Learn Centers in New York City.

$150,000 over three years.

Partnership with Children

To support the continued development of trauma-informed mental health services for Community Schools in New York City.

$225,000 over three years.

The Philip Jaisohn Memorial Foundation

To continue mental health services for Korean immigrant elders, and to undertake strategic planning and board development.

$50,000 over two years.

Project HOME

To expand mental health services for the homeless and those with co-occurring mental health and substance abuse issues.

$150,000 over three years.

Queer Detainee Empowerment Project

To assist detained or recently released Queer immigrant detainees, including those seeking asylum.

$15,000 for one year.

Red Hook Initiative

To add a third LCSW and increase youth-focused mental health counseling on site and through deeper clinical partnerships.

$225,000 over three years.

Safe Horizon

To pilot and prepare to disseminate the results of a first-of-its-kind treatment for children who re-enact sexual abuse on other children.

$225,000 over three years.

Sakhi for South Asian Women

To make a bilingual, licensed clinical counselor position full-time and expand mental health counseling for South Asian immigrant women overcoming domestic violence.

$150,000 over three years.

Union Settlement Association

Renewed support to expand child-parent and creative arts therapy and further build the capacity of the organization's Early Childhood Mental Health Program.

$225,000 over three years.

2018 Grants

Women's Housing and Economic Development Corporation (WHEDco)

To fund a bi-lingual, licensed social worker for Early Learn NYC children and their families needing deeper mental health interventions.

$150,000 over two years.

You Gotta Believe! The Older Child Adoption & Permanency Movement

To train 60 prospective foster or adoptive parents ready to make unconditional commitments to the most at-risk youth transitioning out of foster care.

$150,000 over two years.

NON-DIRECT SERVICE

Abolitionist Law Center / Pennsylvania Council of Churches

To launch a statewide campaign to limit or eliminate solitary confinement in Pennsylvania's prison system.

$300,000 over three years.

American Civil Liberties Union Foundation

For renewed support of the ACLU's National Prison Project and efforts to advance the rights of prisoners with mental illness.

$450,000 over three years.

Association of Community Living Agencies in Mental Health

For Bring It Home, a Campaign to increase funding for agencies providing service to people with serious psychiatric illnesses in need of housing and ongoing rehabilitative services.

$200,000 over two years.

Center for Public Representation

To enhance the Organization's advocacy capacity, galvanize the disability rights movement, and protect mental health parity gained under the Affordable Care Act.

$300,000 over three years.

Children's Rights

To advocate for the reform of Philadelphia's child welfare system.

$300,000 over three years.

Clubhouse International

Renewed support for accreditation programs, training, and advocacy support that will result in 250 Accredited Clubhouses globally by 2021.

$450,000 over three years.

Corporation for Supportive Housing

To support a city-wide initiative for more supportive housing for homeless Philadelphians experiencing significant mental illness.

$300,000 over three years.

The Correctional Association of New York

Support for an advocacy campaign to reform profound flaws in the NY State Prison System's approach to mental health.

$300,000 over three years.

2018 Grants

Fostering Change for Children

To better train and improve retention of frontline case management professionals in NYC's Child Welfare System.

$225,000 over three years.

Medicare Rights Center

To help shape new insurance plans and enroll large numbers of "Dually Eligible" (Medicare and Medicaid) recipients with the most serious mental illnesses.

$225,000 over three years.

National Alliance on Mental Illness of New York City (NA-MI-NYC)

To launch an Advocacy Initiative that will train 240 advocates who will reach policymakers in all 51 districts of New York City.

$225,000 over three years.

New York Lawyers for the Public Interest

To create a more compassionate, effective first-response system for people experiencing a mental health crisis in New York City.

$50,000 over two years.

OC87 Recovery Diaries

To support the production of a documentary bringing needed attention to the mental health struggles affecting law enforcement officials.

$30,000 for one year.

Vera Institute of Justice

To connect incarcerated youth experiencing First Episode Psychosis with earlier diagnosis and connection to community-based treatment upon release.

$225,000 over three years.

Youth Service, Inc.

To better serve 350 homeless or runaway Philadelphia youth through the ARC (Attachment, Regulation and Competency) framework.

$150,000 over three years.

van Ameringen
FOUNDATION

VANAMFOUND.ORG